

U Profile Foam Edge Protectors can be used to protect the edges and corners of various products against knocks during handling, storage and transport, guaranteeing safe arrival at their final destination. Available in a range of sizes and thicknesses, they are a low-cost and simple solution for packaging goods.

