

MAX cases are made from polypropylene plastic and are IP67 certified, guaranteeing excellent protection against water and dust. MAX cases are highly versatile and can be used for sailing, photography, scuba diving, hunting and fishing, by the special forces, for general industrial use and in any situation that requires exceptional protection against external knocks and adverse weather conditions.

